December 1987 and and December, 1988 is as under:—

Year	Public Sector Banks	All Scheduled Commercial Banks
December 1986	61.3	63-0
December 1987	59-2	610
Decemler 1988	60 0	61- 9

The credit deposit ratio had marginally declined in December '87 but has again picked up by the end of December '88. However, variations in C:D ratio of banks is a normal banking phenomenon.

Ratio of Agricultural loan to Industrial Loans

1088. SHRI MUKHTIAR SINGH MALIK: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the amount of loans sanctioned for the agricultural purpose during the last three years; year-wise and Statewise;

(b) whether it is a fact that the ratio of agricultural loans in comparison to that of industrial loans granted by the bank is very low; and

(c) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO): (a) to (c) The outstanding advances of All Scheduled Commercial Banks for Agriculture and industrial sector as at the end of December, 1985, 1986 and 1987 are set out below:—

(Amount in Rs. Crores)

	1985	1986	1987
		10166	11693
Industry
(i) Large & Medium	14575	17161	19597
07) Small Scale Industry	7450	8723	10241

The outstanding advances to agriculture all though were less than the large & medium industry but were more than advances for small scale industry. Deployment of credit in a particular sector depends upon various factors e.g. credit absorption capacity of that sector, backward & forward linkages etc.

Pay scales of employees of Chandigarh Administration

1089. SHRI PA WAN KUMAR BANSAL; Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:
